Coffee & biscuits from 10.15am · Admission by donation

Saturday 3rd February

Hugh Millington, guitar

A welcome return to St Peter's by this fabulous classical guitarist and scholar of the Royal Academy of Music. Hugh's programme will feature music by a range of composers, all played on a nineteenth century guitar made in 1835.

Saturday 10th February

Members of 'The String Fellowes'

A programme of chamber music presented by selected young musicians from the excellent local ensemble 'The String Fellowes'. A variety of repertoire will be presented including Dvořák's Quintet Op. 97.

Saturday 17th February

St Peter's Choir, Southwell Minster Chorale & saraBande

The church choir and resident instrumental ensemble join together with the Southwell Minster Chorale to present Brahms's iconic Ein Deutsches Requiem in Iain Farrington's intriguing arrangement for an accompaniment of just seven players.

Please note that this concert is expected to last approximately 70 minutes.

Saturday 24th February

Ed Hodgkinson, piano

A welcome return to St Peter's by this local pianist and graduate of Birmingham Conservatoire in a sumptuously Romantic programme including music by Brahms, Chopin and Debussy.
