Almighty God, who alone can bring order to the unruly wills and passions of sinful humanity: give your people grace so to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, among the many changes of this world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Choral commission for Dr David Ray

Donations are welcome towards the choral commission in memory of David Ray. David was Associate Professor of Neurotoxicology at the University of Nottingham, and sang in the St Peter's Choir. The University Medical School in collaboration with St Peter's have commissioned a piece of choral music in David's memory. The work will be written by British composer Howard Skempton, and will be based around verses from Ecc.38 that concern the role of medicine and physicians. If you would like to donate towards this exciting project, please enclose your contribution in a Gift Aid envelope clearly marked 'David Ray'.

Emmanuel House - donations required

Emmanuel House are in need of traditional board games, especially chess. If anybody has any games that they would like to donate, please contact Kevin Hancox (9507140).

Fairtrade Shop

The Fairtrade Shop, based at the Parish Centre, has lots of new stock for 2012, including food and drink, crafts, jewellery and textiles. The shop is open weekdays (subject to volunteers), 10.30am-2pm.

Retirement

The Venerable Ian Watson, Archdeacon of Coventry and a former chorister at St Peter's, retired this week on health grounds and is moving to the Market Rasen area. Further details are available from Keith or Cynthia Charter. Ian and his wife, Denise (Den), have retained a close interest in St Peter's over the years and both Ian's parents, who also worshipped at St Peter's in the past, were remembered at memorial services here in 2009 and 2010.

St Peter's Eucharist

Beginning next Sunday, 12th February, we will be trying out a few small changes to the St Peter's main Sunday Eucharist. These are intended to improve the flow of the service and to enhance certain aspects of it in various ways, and will be explained more fully on the day itself. After a few weeks they will be reviewed before any permanent changes are made.
