

ST PETER'S CHURCH, NOTTINGHAM

(next to Marks and Spencer)

COFFEE BREAK CONCERTS

Winter 2010 - 48th series

All concerts start at 11am and last for one hour

Coffee & biscuits available in church from 10.15am • Admission is by donation to the St Peter's music fund

St Peter's Coffee Room will be open until 2pm for the first three Saturdays in February with its usual assortment of sandwiches, light lunches, home-made cakes and hot drinks.

Saturday 6th February

James Rippingale, classical guitar

back by popular demand!

Saturday 13th February

Mahler: Symphony No. 4

performed by 'SaraBande' in an arrangement for chamber ensemble

This concert marks the start of a sponsored 24 hour 'musicathon' in aid of the church organ appeal. Music will be performed in church throughout the day and night until the celebration of Choral Eucharist at 10.45am the next morning, where the choir will sing Rheinberger's stunning Mass in E-flat.

Saturday 20th February

Domenico Scarlatti: Stabat Mater

performed by the excellent local choir, 'Voces Raptorum'

Saturday 27th February

Claire Stevenson, violoncello

music for 'cello and piano by Vivaldi, Dvorák & Beethoven also St Mary's, High Pavement, 7.30pm Beethoven: Symphony No. 5

Brahms: Requiem

Tickets £15 (£13), £12 (£10), £5 (student standby on the door £3)
from Nottingham Playhouse Box Office Tel. 0115 941 9419

Saturday 6th March

Patterson: Fallen Petals and other works

a world première of this setting of Oscar Wilde poetry for tenor, piano & 'cello

plus

Wednesday 24th February, 12 noon

Loughborough Girls' High School Intermediate Choir

a short, light-hearted recital of music from spirituals to Disney!