

ST PETER'S CHURCH, NOTTINGHAM

COFFEE BREAK CONCERTS

July 2009 - 46th series

All concerts start at 11am and last for one hour

Coffee & biscuits will be available from 10.15am

Admission is free, with donations to the church organ appeal welcome

Saturday 4th July

Yi Yao (accordion) and Ching Ching (piano)

Don't miss this rare opportunity to hear the music of a conservatoire-trained accordion and piano duo! The passion of the Tango, the infectiousness of Brazilian rhythms and the mystery of Chinese melodies fuse in a dazzling and diverse programme. A fascinating start to the summer series!

Saturday 11th July

Claire Duffy (flute) and Antony Clare (piano)

This superb local duo will perform a varied programme of music for flute and piano from across the ages, from Telemann to Hindemith, as well as contemporary works. Do take a break from your Saturday shopping to hear this delightful concert.

St Peter's Coffee Room will be open with its usual assortment of freshly cut sandwiches, home-made cakes and hot drinks, 10.30am – 2pm.

Saturday 18th July

St Peter's Church Choir and Essentially Brass

The resident church choir join forces with 'coffee break' concert favourites, Essentially Brass in a magnificent programme that will include the Venetian splendour of Gabrieli motets, as well as the solemn majesty of the music that Purcell wrote for the funeral of Queen Mary.

St Peter's Coffee Room will be open with its usual assortment of freshly cut sandwiches, home-made cakes and hot drinks, 10.30am – 2pm.

Saturday 25th July

The Weigl Ensemble

A welcome return to St Peter's by this excellent local trio, who will be performing music for clarinet, piano and 'cello by Brahms and Zemlinsky. The programme will also include the sonata for solo 'cello by contemporary American composer, George Crumb. A varied and elegant finale to the summer series.

St Peter's Coffee Room will be open with its usual assortment of freshly cut sandwiches, home-made cakes and hot drinks, 10.30am – 2pm.