

ST PETER'S CHURCH, NOTTINGHAM

COFFEE BREAK CONCERTS

February 2009 - 45th series

*All concerts start at 11am and last for one hour
Coffee & biscuits will be available from 10.15am
Admission is free*

Saturday 7th February

Bruckner: Symphony No. 7

Local musicians come together under the baton of Richard Jenkinson (CBSO) to present Anton Bruckner's seventh symphony in a very rarely performed arrangement for string quintet, clarinet, horn, four-hand piano and harmonium. Don't miss this intriguing start to our 2009 series!

Saturday 14th February

St Valentine's Day

Faire Oriana

The mixed voice Elizabethan vocal quintet present a specially themed recital for St Valentine's Day, focusing on the numerous and varied forms of human love. Expect melancholy and joy, madrigals from England and France, and period costume. Not to be missed!

St Peter's Coffee Room will be open with its usual assortment of freshly cut sandwiches, home-made cakes and hot drinks, 10.30am – 2pm.

Saturday 21th February

James Rippingale, classical guitar

Derbyshire-based professional guitarist James Rippingale presents an eclectic collection of music for solo guitar. Repertoire will span that from Europe, America and Japan, including works by Lou Harrison, Sor, York, Yocoh and Walton. A fascinating programme not to be missed!

St Peter's Coffee Room will be open with its usual assortment of freshly cut sandwiches, home-made cakes and hot drinks, 10.30am – 2pm.

Saturday 28th February

The Attenborough Piano Quintet

This local ensemble presents a programme of music for two violins, viola, 'cello and piano including works by Boccherini, Schumann, Elgar and Zajaczkowski. A varied and elegant finale to the February series.