

MUSIC AT ST PETER'S NOTTINGHAM

COFFEE BREAK CONCERTS

Summer 2018

All concerts start at 11am and last for one hour
Coffee & biscuits from 10.15am · Admission by donation

Saturday 2nd June

Michael Matthews, guitar

The series starts with one of the most exciting and flamboyant guitarists of the younger generation, in an eclectic programme of music from around the world, but with a particular emphasis on British repertoire and the Elizabethan era.

Saturday 9th June

Farnaby & Co.

This local vocal ensemble celebrates twenty-five years of singing together with a programme of Elizabethan madrigals and other works, including George Shearing's fabulous Songs and Sonnets from Shakespeare.

Tom Bell, piano

A particularly exciting young talent, this morning's performer has been described as "a young Jules Holland." Tom's programme will combine his own compositions alongside contemporary arrangements of Boogie Woogie classics.

Saturday 23rd June

Trent Brass Quintet

Making their St Peter's debut, this Nottingham-based ensemble will present a selection of music arranged and composed for brass from the Baroque to the Modern era.

Saturday 30th June

Katharine Dryden (mezzo-soprano) • Philip Robinson (piano)

The series concludes with a recital of art song with a programme that will include Robert Schumann's moving song cycle Frauenliebe und Leben, as well as works by Purcell, Mendelssohn and Elgar.

Saturday 14th July

Spacehop! Family Coffee Break Concert

in association with The Nottingham Chamber Music Festival

Join the Intergalactic Piano Trio in a concert adventure designed for families, babies and children aged nine and under. With music by Bach, Debussy, Holst, and John Williams, children and families can respond as they choose, by sitting, dancing, singing, or moving around, with plenty of interaction throughout.
