Saturday 2nd February

Reuben Tendler, horn

Angela Foan, piano

We are delighted to welcome to St Peter's these excellent local musicians in a recital of French music for French horn. With Poulenc's Élégie at its heart, don't miss this inspiring start to the series.

Saturday 9th February

saraBande

Our resident instrumental ensemble presents a programme of music by JS Bach: the rarely performed Concerto in A for Oboe d'Amore, extracts from The Art of Fugue, and the thrilling Orchestral Suite No. 1 in C major.

James Gaughan, baritone

Matthew Collins, piano

This morning's concert sees a wide-ranging recital of song drawing on the poetry of three centuries, from Shakespeare to Housman. The programme will include songs by Butterworth, Finzi, Parry and Vaughan Williams along with lieder by Schubert and Schumann.

Saturday 23rd February

Scarlet

The series concludes with the eight voices of local choir Scarlet in what promises to be an enjoyable and eclectic programme that encompasses a range of musical styles and eras.
